No.	Ref.	Changes from KJV	Significance
138	See twelve references in the right-hand column.	Changes "testament" to "covenant"	The new bibles incorporate this error twelve times: Matt. 26:28; Mark 14:24; Luke 22:20; 1 Cor. 11:25; 2 Cor. 3:6, 14; Heb. 7:22; 9:15 (twice), 18, 20; Rev. 11:19. A testament is in force only after the death of the testator ; a covenant does not require the death of anybody to be in force, i.e. using the word "covenant" in the new bibles has eliminated the shed blood and crucifixion of the Lord Jesus Christ.
139	Jude 8	Omits "filthy"	The new bibles remove this important and fitting adjective which accurately describes the apostate teachers referred to in the context.
